

Spring Term Creative Homework

The Great British Countryside!

The Wind in the Willows!

Here are some creative homework ideas for your learning logs. You may choose to complete any of these in any order. You may wish to complete your own tasks, linked to the topic.

Create your own questions about what you want to find out about the countryside in Britain.	Research the author who wrote The Wind in the Willows?
Research art work linked to the countryside in Britain and respond to it however you wish to.	Make your own piece of art work to represent the British countryside.
Which counties and cities are in the UK? Create a map to represent this.	Create your own poem about the British countryside.
Write your own version of The Wind in the Willows.	Draw the characters from The Wind in the Willows.
Design your own front cover of The Wind in the Willows.	Design and make a fact file on woodland animals.

